Weekend at Birney's

24 Hours with the Lord: March 19th – 20th

As we have done in the past, we'll be organizing a 24 Hours with the Lord (Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament) from conclusion of 8:30am Mass on Tuesday, March 19 until Wednesday, March 20 at 8:00am. There are many reasons why this type of prayer experience is beneficial:

- Amid our Eucharistic Revival Year, another privileged opportunity to be before the Blessed Sacrament in prayer and contemplation.
- Lent is a time of prayer and reflection...what better place to enter more fully into that most worthy of endeavors than before the Lord in Exposition.
- March 19th is also the Solemnity of St. Joseph, husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In Joseph, with his relationship to Mary as husband and Jesus as an earthly Father, we have the prime example of a man who exemplifies duty, faith, prayer and sacrifice.
- From 6:30pm – 8:00pm we will offer God's forgiveness through the sacrament of Reconciliation. Several priests will be present.
- Every hour on the hour, a devotion or preaching will occur. Each of hour of the twenty-four will offer a unique way to give praise, worship and glory to God.
- Come for an hour, twenty minutes, or half the day. Come for prayer, confession or both. Come to be with the Lord and pray for peace in the world, an increase of priestly and religious vocations, conversion of hearts, forgiveness of sins and whatever is on your heart. God will listen!

Fourth Sunday 'Laetare' of Lent

"The fourth Sunday of Lent called Laetare Sunday. Laetare is a Latin word that means "rejoice." Traditionally, Sundays are named after the first word of the liturgy's opening antiphon. On this Sunday, the antiphon is taken from the book of the prophet Isaiah (Isaiah 66:10-11). Even as we observe our Lenten sacrifices, we rejoice in anticipation of the joy that will be ours at Easter.

Today's Gospel reading is taken from John's Gospel. It consists of two parts. The first part is the final sentence of Jesus' reply to Nicodemus, the Pharisee who approached Jesus at night. Nicodemus acknowledged Jesus as someone who had come from God and seemed to want to be a follower of Jesus. Jesus greeted Nicodemus with the observation that one must be born from above to see the Kingdom of God. The dialogue between Jesus and Nicodemus that followed was about the meaning of this phrase. Nicodemus misunderstood Jesus at every point, but there was no animosity in the questions he posed to Jesus.

In the part of the conversation with Nicodemus in today's Gospel, Jesus referred to an incident reported in the Old Testament. When the Israelites grumbled against the Lord during their sojourn in the desert, God sent venomous serpents to punish them for their complaints. The Israelites repented and asked Moses to pray for them. The Lord heard Moses' prayer and instructed him to make a bronze serpent and mount it on a pole. All who had been bitten by a serpent and then looked upon the bronze serpent were cured. By recalling this story, Jesus alludes to the salvation that would be accomplished through his death and Resurrection.

The second part of today's Gospel is a theological reflection on Jesus' words to Nicodemus. The Gospel of John is known for this kind of reflection offered within the narrative. In these reflections, John elaborates on a number of themes that are found in his Gospel: light and darkness, belief and unbelief, good and evil, salvation and condemnation.

In John's reflection, we find an observation about human sinfulness. Jesus is the light that has come into the world, but people preferred the darkness. We wish to keep our sins hidden, even from God. Jesus has come into the world to reveal our sins so that they may be forgiven. This is the Good News; it is the reason for our rejoicing in this season of Lent and throughout our lives".

Quote for the Week

"Lent is a time of profound truth, which brings conversion, restores hope and by putting everything back to its proper place, brings peace." – St. John Paul II

Suggested Penance for the Week

Point out to another his or her virtue...give the gift of a word of praise.

That's all for now, prayers for a holy Lent,

March 10 — Fourth Sunday of Lent

In today's Gospel, God demonstrates great love for us by sending his Son so that we may believe in him. We demonstrate our great love for God by doing good works: reaching out to others, acting with justice and charity.

Through your almsgiving you are performing a good work; far greater than you think. Know that your nickel, dime, quarter or dollar is multiplied by coins placed by others in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box.

Church Food Bin

Thank you for your continued donations of nonperishable food items for local pantries.

We have increased our giving from monthly to bi-weekly pickups of food because of your generosity. Due to the current economy, the need has been great and you certainly have responded. Keep it coming! The pantries that have benefited from your gifts in the past year are St. Christine, Our Lady of the Angels and The Downriver Food Pantry. Please continue to drop off food items in the large bin found in the Narthex and we will do our part to get it into the hands of the organizations feeding those in need.

A few items requested by St. Christine Food Pantry are canned Beef Stew, Chili, Chicken, and tuna. Cereal and toilet paper are always a big need also.

We all know that giving blood can save your life, and in addition, help save someone else's life. Recent studies show that this little act is the most heroic act that can be done by everyone. Every day, patients in the U.S. need an average of 44,000 units of blood. That's about 17 million donations or nearly 23 million blood products-transfused to 5 million patients a year.

Anyone 17 and older, and have a valid I.D. are encouraged to come and donate. Donors should go to www.redcrossblood.org, click on enter sponsor code and then enter the code "Cabrini" this will bring up the available appointment times for our drive from which you can select a convenient time for yourself. Streamline your donation experience and save up to 15 minutes by visiting Red-CrossBlood.org/RapidPass to complete your pre-donation reading and health history questions on the day of your appointment. Walk ins are welcome but appointments are strongly encouraged. Call the Parish Office with questions. Thank you in advance for taking the time to give life to another. God Bless you for caring.

How wonderful it is to have our church filled with parishioners gathered before the table of the Lord each weekend. We especially welcome those who have recently registered to be part of our parish family:

The Faithful Departed | Eternal Rest | Episode 4

What is left for the living to do after someone dies? In this session, we talk about the final ways in which those still living on earth care for the body and soul of the dead. We discuss the work that remains for the living to do as we grieve for the deceased and as we turn to the work of preparing for our own death, and the hope in which we live and die as Christians.
