Preparing for Change

From the Pastoral Letter: Unleash the Gospel: Our good habits are those dispositions of mind and heart that we must take on in order to become a radically mission-oriented Church.

They are in fact a participation in the mind and heart of Jesus. "Have among yourselves the same attitude that is also yours in Christ Jesus...". The following good habits are particularly crucial to the cultural change we are seeking to effect in the Archdiocese of Detroit.

Docility to the Spirit

Throughout Acts of the Apostles it is evident that the Holy Spirit was the initiator, guide, and driving force of the Church's evangelizing mission. So today the new evangelization can only be carried out through a radical openness to the leading of the Spirit: preceding every initiative with prayer for his guidance, constantly allowing ourselves to be led by him, and obeying his promptings and inspirations.

Apostolic Boldness

A quality that stood out among the early Christians was their boldness in proclaiming the Gospel, even in the face of hostility and persecution They did not hesitate to proclaim Jesus as the one Savior whom God offers to the whole human race, and to call their listeners to repentance and conversion. Their boldness was not a human personality trait, but a result of their intimate union with Christ.

A Spirit of Innovation

The rapidly changing cultural situation in which we find ourselves requires that we think in new and creative ways. We need to be willing to jettison some old structures that no longer work and to experiment with new ones. As St. Paul tried different missionary strategies in different settings so we need to be innovative, flexible, adaptable, unafraid to make mistakes, and willing to learn from the good ideas of others.

A Spirit of Cooperation

There can be no competition in the body of Christ, because we have one Lord and one united purpose The whole Archdiocese has embarked on the new evangelization together, and any victory for one is a victory for all. As Christ's apostles had to put aside rivalry and learn to work as a team so we are called to a spirit of generous cooperation and sharing of resources.

Confidence in God

St. Thérèse teaches us the way of spiritual childhood, which is the way of simplicity and utter confidence in God. We give the Lord the best of our effort, but it is he who will bring the increase. We can trust in him, for the renewal of the Archdiocese of Detroit is not our work but his divine work in which we are cooperating.

"Therefore, neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God, who causes the growth"

An Attitude of Gratitude

The best antidote to discouragement is to praise God continually for who he is and to thank him for what he has done. "We thank you, God, we give thanks; we call upon your name, declare your wonderful deeds."

Gratitude puts us in a right posture before God and opens us to his further work in our lives.

Third Sunday of Advent

"The third Sunday of Advent is called Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete is a Latin word that means "rejoice." This name is taken from the entrance antiphon for Sunday's Mass and echoed in today's second reading from the Paul's letter to the Philippians.

In reading Luke's Gospel continuously, we learn about John the Baptist challenging the crowds who came to him and calling for their repentance. John tells his listeners that they cannot rely on their lineage as Israelites because children of Abraham can be raised up from stones. Repentance, rather, must be observable in one's actions. Here, Luke is continuing to set up two important themes of his Gospel message: the Christian faith is expressed in one's actions, and the call to salvation is extended to everyone, Jews and Gentiles.

The crowds ask John the Baptist for specifics. John replies by naming concrete actions: crowds should share their food and cloaks; tax collectors should be just; soldiers should act fairly. The concern for justice is a hallmark of Luke's Gospel.

John the Baptist knows his place and role in God's plan of salvation. By encouraging the crowd to act similarly in accordance with their stations in life, John's teaching suggests that each person has a role to play in God's salvation. It is the great mystery of our salvation that God permits and even asks for human cooperation in his divine plans." (loyolapress.com)

Football Prediction

Lions 31 – Bills 30 (homefield advantage will tip the scales on this battle of top NFL teams...and we keep winning!)

Notre Dame 34—Indiana 27 (the Hoosier state rivalry will go to the Catholics!)

Preparándose Para el Cambio

De la Carta Pastoral: Dar rienda suelta al Evangelio: Nuestros buenos hábitos son aquellas disposiciones de mente y corazón que debemos asumir para convertirnos en una Iglesia radicalmente orientada a la misión. De hecho, son una participación en la mente y el corazón de Jesús. "Tened entre vosotros la misma actitud que también es vuestra en Cristo Jesús...". Los siguientes buenos hábitos son particularmente cruciales para el cambio cultural que estamos buscando efectuar en la Arquidiócesis de Detroit.

Docilidad al Espíritu.

A lo largo de los Hechos de los Apóstoles es evidente que el Espíritu Santo fue el iniciador, guía y fuerza de la misión evangelizadora de la Iglesia. Por eso, hoy la nueva evangelización sólo puede llevarse a cabo a través de una apertura radical a la guía del Espíritu: prece-diendo cada iniciativa con la oración por su guía, deján-donos guiar constantemente por él y obedeciendo a sus impulsos e inspiraciones.

Audacia Apostólica

Una cualidad que se destacó entre los primeros cristia-nos fue su audacia en el anuncio del Evangelio, incluso frente a la hostilidad y la persecución. No dudaron en proclamar a Jesús como el único Salvador que Dios ofrece a todo el género humano, y en llamar a sus oyentes al arrepentimiento y a la conversión. Su audacia no era un rasgo de la personalidad humana, sino el resultado de su íntima unión con Cristo.

Un Espíritu de Innovación

La situación cultural rápidamente cambiante en la que nos encontramos requiere que pensemos de maneras nuevas y creativas. Tenemos que estar dispuestos a deshacernos de algunas viejas estructuras que ya no funcionan y a experimentar con otras nuevas. Así como San Pablo probó diferentes estrategias misioneras en diferentes entornos, debemos ser innovadores, flexi-bles, adaptables, no tener miedo de cometer errores y estar dispuestos a aprender de las buenas ideas de los demás.

Un Espíritu de Cooperación

No puede haber competencia en el cuerpo de Cristo, porque tenemos un solo Señor y un solo propósito. To-da la Arquidiócesis se ha embarcado en la nueva evan-gelización juntos, y cualquier victoria para uno es una victoria para todos. Así como los apóstoles de Cristo tuvieron que dejar de lado la rivalidad y aprender a trabajar en equipo, así también nosotros estamos lla-mados a un espíritu de cooperación generosa y de in-tercambio de recursos.

Confianza en Dios

Santa Teresa nos enseña el camino de la infancia espiri-tual, que es el camino de la sencillez y de la confianza absoluta en Dios. Le damos al Señor lo mejor de nues-tros esfuerzos, pero es él quien traerá el crecimiento. Podemos confiar en él, porque la renovación de la Ar-quidiócesis de Detroit no es nuestra obra, sino su obra

divina en la que estamos cooperando. "Por tanto, ni el que planta ni el que riega es nada, sino solo Dios, que hace crecer"

Una Actitud de Gratitud

El mejor antídoto contra el desaliento es alabar a Dios continuamente por lo que es y agradecerle por lo que ha hecho. "Te damos gracias, Dios, damos gracias; invo-camos tu nombre, declaramos tus maravillas". La grati-tud nos pone en una posición correcta ante Dios y nos abre a su obra futura en nuestras vidas.

Tercer Domingo de Adviento

"El tercer domingo de Adviento se llama domingo de Gaudete. Gaudete es una palabra latina que significa "regocijarse". Este nombre está tomado de la antifona de entrada para la misa dominical y se repite en la se-gunda lectura de hoy de la carta de Pablo a los Filipen-ses.

Al leer el Evangelio de Lucas continuamente, aprende-mos acerca de Juan el Bautista desafiando a las multitu-des que se acercaban a él y llamando a su arrepenti-miento. Juan les dice a sus oyentes que no pueden con-fiar en su linaje como israelitas porque los hijos de Abraham pueden ser levantados de piedras. El arrepen-timiento, más bien, debe ser observable en las acciones de uno. Aquí, Lucas sigue planteando dos temas impor-tantes de su mensaje evangélico: la fe cristiana se ex-presa en las propias acciones, y la llamada a la salvación se extiende a todos, judíos y gentiles.

Las multitudes le piden a Juan el Bautista detalles espe-cíficos. Juan responde nombrando acciones concretas: las multitudes deben compartir su comida y sus mantos; los recaudadores de impuestos deben ser justos; los soldados deben actuar con justicia. La preocupación por la justicia es un sello distintivo del Evangelio de Lucas.

Juan el Bautista conoce su lugar y su papel en el plan de salvación de Dios. Al animar a la multitud a actuar de manera similar de acuerdo con sus posiciones en la vi-da, la enseñanza de Juan sugiere que cada persona tie-ne un papel que desempeñar en la salvación de Dios. Es el gran misterio de nuestra salvación que Dios permite e incluso pide la cooperación humana en sus planes divi-nos". (loyolapress.com)

Predicción de Fútbol

Lions 31 – Bills 30 (la ventaja de jugar en casa inclinará la balanza en esta batalla de los mejores equipos de la NFL... ¡Y seguimos ganando!)

Notre Dame 34—Indiana 27 (¡la rivalidad del estado Hoosier irá a los católicos!)

Stewardship of Time and Talent Corresponsabilidad de Tiempo y Talento

On this third Sunday of Advent, “Gaudete (Latin for “rejoice”) Sunday,” the theme of joy weaves throughout the liturgy and readings. This joy and mutual delight is not meant to be held in but to be shared with others, especially strangers. What actions can we take this week to make that happen? En este tercer domingo de Adviento, “Domingo Gaudete (en latín, “alegrarse”)”, el tema de la alegría se entrelaza a lo largo de la liturgia y las lecturas. Este gozo y deleite mutuo no debe ser retenido sino compartido con otros, especialmente con extraños. ¿Qué acciones podemos tomar esta semana para que eso suceda?

Lift Up Your Hearts

This third Sunday of Advent is called, in the Latin phrase, "GAUDETTE" .... REJOICE.... because Christmas is near.... The Lord is near. Christ's Mas means Christ's feast.... Christ's Festival.

The Old Testament prophet in today's first reading proclaims: "Shout for joy.... the Lord your God, is in your midst.... a mighty Savior." (Zeph 3:18)

The Second reading today to the Philippians, St. Paul says: "Rejoice in the Lord always.... have no anxiety...."

The question asked in the Gospel today.... asked by "the crowd" is "what should we do"??? John replied: do not do wrong to others and be satisfied with what you have. The people were so amazed and filled with expectation, they were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ.

Perhaps that is one way of thinking about our own hearts.... can people tell that we are followers of Christ....and truly Christians.... can folks recognize that we are followers of Jesus by the way we speak and act toward others...?

Wow, these are tough questions, but they will help us put Christ in Christmas and put our Faith into action.

With Love,
Fr. Leo

Garden Ministry

A big THANK YOU to all the wonderful garden volunteers who attended parish service days, trimmed bushes and trees, spread mulch, planted flowers, started new gardens, donated plants or money, faithfully watered and weeded all summer and raked leaves this fall.

A special thanks to Rosanne and Mark Kidd who pulled out all the old bushes around the Solanus Casey statue and planted a new garden that highlights the beauty of the sculpture; to Inez Hernandez who planted the beautiful pots that greet us as we enter the church

And thanks to all the friends of the gardens who donated on the Cabrini Day of Giving in Memory of Mary Smith, a dedicated garden volunteer.

The gardens are looking more beautiful each year and it's all due to the continuous efforts of a large group of volunteers. We come together to praise God with our hands, rakes, shovels and trowels.

"As stewards of God's creation, we are called to make the earth a beautiful garden for the human family." (Pope Francis) Our hard work is our gift to the parishioners of Cabrini Parish.

I thank you all with a full heart, wish you all blessed holidays, and look forward to working with you again in the spring.

God Bless,
Joyce McCabe

We provide three volunteers to prepare and serve a simple bagged lunch. We will meet outside the Holy Family Hall. Transportation is provided. We currently have a group of six faithful volunteers. We need additional volunteers to fill in as needed or to join a month rotation. To volunteer call Joyce McCabe (313) 506-6154.

Needed items: monetary donations for the purchase of fresh fruit, Free and Clear laundry detergent, bleach, or Awesome or Fabulosa for the shower and laundry facilities, or by donating gently used men's clothing (seasonal only) and white underwear and socks. Drop donations off at the Parish Office.

St. Christine Soup Kitchen

Tuesday, January 14, 8:30am — 2:30pm

Volunteers are needed to help cook and serve the more than 250 men, women and children who depend on

St. Christine's for a hot meal. If you would like to join us on this day, please call or text Jeannine Little at (313)268-5181 or email jandjlittle@hotmail.com. The group will meet in the Parish Office at 8:30am to car-pool to St. Christine's and return 2:30pm.

Donations of juice boxes and individually wrapped desserts are needed for the children's bagged meal and monetary donations are always needed to help off-set the cost of the food served on this day. If you would like to donate homemade or store-bought baked goods, please drop them off to the Parish Office by Monday, January 13 no later than 1pm. A cart will be left in the hallway outside the office door for drop off.

Capuchin Bake Sale | Sunday, December 15

On the Rise Bakery will be visiting our parish on Sunday, December 15, after all Masses in the Gathering Space. The bakers are men in the R.O.P.E. program (Reaching Our Potential Everyday) which is sponsored by the Capuchin Soup Kitchen. The men have come from prison or long-term addiction programs to restart their lives. Although the men have a bakery in the Solanus Casey Center, they can't make it without the help of the parishes. They thank the parish for allowing them to be part of our community and ask that you hold them in your prayers.

Sunday, December 22

Following 8:00 & 10:00am Masses

Plan to join our hosts, Danny and Maria Wyatt in the Grade School Cafeteria for fellowship, a delicious Donut Kastle donut and a warm cup of coffee.

Nursing Home Homebound Ministry

There is a growing number of parishioners who are unable to worship with us, but who long to stay connected to the parish through the Eucharist. To meet the requests we receive from the homebound and those in nursing homes, we are always in need of parishioners to join the parish team of lay ministers who bring Communion to their home or nursing facility.

Currently we are in need of a few ministers who would commit to a monthly visit to Optalis Health (corner of Wick and Allen Rd.) to lead the rosary and a communion service on Wednesdays at 2pm for the residents. If you feel called to share your faith in these ways, please call Therese at the parish office at (313) 436-0201 or email ttardiff@cabriniparish.com.

Advent by Candlelight

Thank You

A special thank you to everyone who participated in a wonderful evening shared last Thursday evening for our Advent Tea by Candlelight. Hostesses gathered with friends and family around beautifully decorated tables.

Our evening began in prayer lead by Fr. Ryan, song lead by Dan McAfee, Peggy Durocher, Val Downs, Stephanie Plona, Vanessa Powell, and Renee Sosa. Fr. Grayson offered a beautiful reflection "Becoming Pilgrims of Hope" to guide us through the holy season.

The evening ended with dessert, tea, and fellowship - it was a wonderful evening! Thank you to Cheryl Kozuh and the Hospitality Team for organizing this special time for our parish community!

And thank you to all the guests for your gift of $10 gift cards, we collected over $700 worth of cards which will be used throughout the year for those folks who come to us at church in need of assistance with food, clothes, gas, or a card just to get a warm cup of coffee!

May God Bless you in a special way this Advent and Christmas Season and beyond!

Third Sunday of Advent

Not Ready? No Problem!

We often get so caught up in all the things we do to prepare for Christmas that we forget Advent all together. The readings remind us that in spite of the stress we may feel thinking about how close Christmas is, we are called to rejoice for the Lord is near.

The stress we feel may be from fear. But did you ever notice how much easier it is when you have someone to shop with you, or write the Christmas cards, or decorate the tree? "Shout for joy... fear not!" says the prophet Zephaniah in the first reading. (Zeph 3:14) He tells us the Lord is not coming to punish us for waiting till the last minute to put up the tree. The prophet says the Lord is in our midst, we are not alone. "He has turned away your enemies." (Zeph 3:15)

And as if that wasn't good enough, he says that the Lord rejoices over us! How many times have you wondered if you could ask the Lord for help? Zephaniah reminds us that the Lord is happy to help. And St. Paul says the same thing in the second reading: "Have no anxiety at all...make your requests known to God." (Phil 4:6) That is where Advent comes in.

We can look forward to the Lord's presence in our lives. That is why faith and hope are central to the theme of Advent. Our faith in God's love for us gives us hope that he will support us in our weakness and fill us with the joy he has over us.

-Tom Schmidt
