Weekend at Birney's

Preparing for the Future: Final Shepherd's Report

I pray that you have appreciated the time and energy that we have devoted in sharing with you the information from our Listening

Sessions these past few weekends, and prior to that, throughout the month of September. All of the information that was discussed and presented is our desire to be open with you about what we know regarding the future for the Archdiocese of Detroit, and specifically our Family of Parishes.

Our original plan was to send a pastoral letter to all of you, which will detail all the changes that will be forthcoming on January 13th. That has now changed. To assist with all the logistics of properly communicating this across four parishes, it has been decided to push back the timeline a month. So, this means the letter will not arrive in your mailbox until sometime in mid-February.

I apologize for this change, but as my parents have always told me, if it is worth doing, it is worth doing right. I appreciate your patience and cooperation. As I asked as we ended all the presentations, please remember to keep all of the parishioners and priests in your prayers as we anticipate these changes.

Baptism of the Lord

"Today we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. In today's Gospel, as in the other Gospel accounts of Jesus' baptism, we hear John the Baptist address the confusion of the people who thought that John might be the Messiah. In response, John contrasts the baptism that he performs with the Baptism that Jesus will inaugurate. John the Baptist says that he has baptized with water, but that someone will come and baptize with the Holy Spirit. The type of baptism that John performed was not yet a Christian Baptism; it was a preparation for Christian Baptism through which sins are forgiven and the gift of the Holy Spirit is received.

The baptism of Jesus is reported in each of the three Synoptic Gospels—Matthew, Mark, and Luke. Clearly, it was an event of great significance for Jesus and for the early Christian community. The Evangelists Mark and Luke report the story from Jesus' perspective; the voice from heaven is addressed to Jesus. Compare this to Matthew's Gospel in which the voice from heaven speaks to everyone. In Luke, however, the Holy Spirit descends upon Jesus during his time of prayer after his baptism. Through his Gospel, Luke will show Jesus to be a person of prayer who withdraws regularly from the crowds and his disciples to pray to his Father.

The baptism of Jesus is considered a manifestation of God in Jesus, another "epiphany." On this, the last day of the Christmas season, our Gospel reveals to us Jesus' relation to God: the son of Mary and Joseph is also God's own Son. In Luke's Gospel, all three members of the Trinity are manifested here: God the Father in the voice, the Holy Spirit descending, and Jesus the Son. At the beginning of his Gospel, Luke is communicating to us important information about the identity of Jesus. In the verses that follow, Luke lists the genealogy of Jesus, tracing Jesus' ancestry back to the first person, Adam, who is also identified as the son of God. We, the children of Adam and Eve, are again made children of God through Baptism." (loyolapress.com)

Football Prediction

Notre Dame 30 – Penn State 21 (it won't be the 'luck' of the Irish that wins this semi-final....but the 'fight' in the Irish)

Lions vs. Everybody (a much-deserved week off for the 1st place GRIT inspired Lions. Next stop...a date with destiny!)

Quote for the Week

"No one can begin a new life, unless he repent of the old." - St. Augustine

That's all for now, see you in Church,
Fr. Tim Birney

Fin de Semana en Birney's

Preparándose para el future:

Informe final del pastor

Rezo para que hayan apreciado el tiempo y la energía que hemos dedicado a compartir con ustedes la información de nuestras Sesiones de Escucha estos últimos fines de semana, y antes de eso, durante todo el mes de septiembre. Toda la información que se discutió y presentó es nuestro deseo de ser abiertos con ustedes sobre lo que sabemos sobre el futuro de la Arquidiócesis de Detroit, y específicamente de nuestra Familia de Parroquias.

Nuestro plan original era enviar una carta pastoral a todos ustedes, en la que se detallarán todos los cambios que vendrán el 13 de enero. Ahora eso ha cambiado. Para ayudar con toda la logística de comunicar esto adecuadamente a través de cuatro parroquias, se ha decidido retrasar el cronograma un mes. Por lo tanto, esto significa que la carta no llegará a su buzón hasta mediados de febrero.

Pido disculpas por este cambio, pero como siempre me han dicho mis padres, si vale la pena hacerlo, vale la pena hacerlo bien. Agradezco su paciencia y cooperación. Como pregunté al terminar todas las presentaciones, por favor recuerden mantener a todos los feligreses y sacerdotes en sus oraciones mientras anticipamos estos cambios.

Bautismo del Señor

"Hoy celebramos la fiesta del Bautismo del Señor. En el Evangelio de hoy, como en los otros relatos evangélicos del bautismo de Jesús, escuchamos a Juan el Bautista dirigirse a la confusión de la gente que pensaba que Juan podría ser el Mesías. En respuesta, Juan contrasta el bautismo que realiza con el bautismo que Jesús inaugurará. Juan el Bautista dice que ha bautizado con agua, pero que alguien vendrá y bautizará con el Espíritu Santo. El tipo de bautismo que Juan llevó a cabo todavía no era un bautismo cristiano; era una preparación para el Bautismo Cristiano a través del cual se perdonan los pecados y se recibe el don del Espíritu Santo.

El bautismo de Jesús se relata en cada uno de los tres evangelios sinópticos: Mateo, Marcos y Lucas. Claramente, fue un evento de gran importancia para Jesús y para la comunidad cristiana primitiva. Los evangelistas Marcos y Lucas relatan la historia desde la perspectiva de Jesús; la voz del cielo se dirige a Jesús. Compárese esto con el Evangelio de Mateo, en el que la voz del cielo habla a todos. En Lucas, sin embargo, el Espíritu Santo desciende sobre Jesús durante su tiempo de oración después de su bautismo. A través de su Evangelio, Lucas mostrará a Jesús como una persona de oración que se retira regularmente de las multitudes y a sus discípulos para orar a su Padre.

El bautismo de Jesús es considerado una manifestación de Dios en Jesús, otra "epifanía". En este, el último día del tiempo de Navidad, nuestro Evangelio nos revela la relación de Jesús con Dios: el hijo de María y José es también el Hijo de Dios. En el Evangelio de Lucas, los tres miembros de la Trinidad se manifiestan aquí: Dios el Padre en la voz, el Espíritu Santo que desciende y Jesús el Hijo. Al comienzo de su Evangelio, Lucas nos comunica información importante sobre la identidad de Jesús. En los versículos que siguen, Lucas enumera la genealogía de Jesús, rastreando la ascendencia de Jesús hasta la primera persona, Adán, quien también se identifica como el hijo de Dios. Nosotros, los hijos de Adán y Eva, somos hechos de nuevo hijos de Dios por el Bautismo". (loyolapress.com)

Predicciones de fútbol

Notre Dame 30 – Penn State 21 (no será la "suerte" de los irlandeses la que gane esta semifinal... sino la "lucha" en los irlandeses)

Lions vs. Everybody (una semana de descanso muy merecida para el 1er lugar, GRIT inspiró a los Leones. Próxima parada... ¡Una cita con el destino!)

Frase de la semana

"Nadie puede comenzar una nueva vida, a menos que se arrepienta de la vieja." - San Agustín

Eso es todo por ahora, nos vemos en la Iglesia, Padre Tim Birney

Lift Up Your Hearts

Today's feast celebrates the baptism of Jesus by John in the Jordan river. It was customary for John to baptize people as a sign of their conversion of heart. It was a turning point in life for people. The text of today's gospel says: After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized....

“Heaven was opened, and the Holy Spirit descended upon Him...like a dove, and a Voice from Heaven:

YOU ARE MY BELOVED SON:
 WITH YOU I AM WELL PLEASED.” (Lk 13:21,22)

Jesus humbled Himself because He was like us in our human nature in all things except for sin.

This beautiful gift of baptism unites us with baptized people around the world. One of the beautiful privileges of the priesthood is to celebrate the baptisms of babies year-round and the special time at the Easter Vigil for adults. I have often seen tears of deep joy in parents as they have their babies baptized.

At the Easter Vigil each year we celebrate the baptism of adults who have made their choice of beginning to live a New Life in Christ through baptism.

We close with the prayer of the Church:

“ALMIGHTY, ETERNAL GOD, WHOSE SPIRIT DESCENDED UPON JESUS AND HIS BAPTISM IN THE JORDAN, YOU REVEALED HIM AS YOUR OWN BELOVED SON. KEEP US, YOUR CHILDREN BORN OF WATER AND THE SPIRIT, FAITHFUL TO OUR CALLING.”

With love, Fr. Leo

Saint Hilary

Saint of the Week—January 13

Born in Poitiers, France, whose populace would later elect him bishop, Hilary, married and a father, was converted from paganism to Christianity through his reading of scripture. The focus of his prayerful study was the Prologue to the Gospel according to John, which portrays Jesus as the divine Logos, eternally begotten of the Father.

As a result, Hilary became in the words of the biblical scholar Jerome, “the Latin Trumpet against the Arians,” heretics who believed Jesus to be merely human, not divine. In defense of Christ’s divinity, Hilary was not only eloquent in debate but utterly fearless in the face of relentless persecution and even exile. Thus by the witness of his own discipleship, Hilary taught that faith in Jesus as the divine Son of God has consequences. Reflecting on Jesus’ challenge to his disciples, “You are the salt of the earth” (Matthew 5:13), Hilary notes that, as salt both preserves from corruption and adds savor to food, so must the faithful disciple bear a witness that, by word and example, leads others to immortality and virtuous living.

The Baptism of the Lord

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Merry Christmas! Share that cheerful greeting with some folks today. They may wonder if you have had any Elvis sightings lately, attended Star Trekkie conventions, or were Cleopatra in a previous lifetime. Despite the skeptics, today is solidly within the Christmas season. In fact, in some strands of the Christian tradition it represents the clearest manifestation of the mystery of the Incarnation. On Christmas Day, for example, the Gospel reading is the Prologue of John's Gospel, which reveals the glory of Christ shining through our humanity precisely in his baptism.

At any rate, this is an ancient feast, celebrated first in Egypt sixteen centuries ago. More than most other ancient people, the Egyptians understood the life-giving properties of water. On this day, they drew water from the Nile, so central in the history of their people, and reserved it in honor. Many other places copied the custom, so that St. John Chrysostom wrote of people in Antioch gathering at midnight to collect flowing water into vessels they brought from home since "today there is a blessing on the water."

At home for dinner tonight, decorate the table with beautiful bowls of water and white candles, toast one another with goblets of sparkling water, and light a Christmas candle in the window one last time.

—James Field

We provide three volunteers to prepare and serve a simple bagged lunch. We will meet outside the Holy Family Hall. Transportation is provided. We currently have a group of six faithful volunteers. We need additional volunteers to fill in as needed or to join a month rotation. To volunteer call Joyce McCabe (313) 506-6154.

Needed items: monetary donations for the purchase of fresh fruit, Free and Clear laundry detergent, bleach, or Awesome or Fabulosa for the shower and laundry facilities, or by donating gently used men's clothing (seasonal only) and white underwear and socks. Drop donations off at the Parish Office.

St. Christine Soup Kitchen

Nursing Home Homebound Ministry

There is a growing number of parishioners who are unable to worship with us, but who long to stay connected to the parish through the Eucharist. To meet the requests we receive from the homebound and those in nursing homes, we are always in need of parishioners to join the parish team of lay ministers who bring Communion to their home or nursing facility.

Currently we are in need of a few ministers who would commit to a monthly visit to Optalis Health (corner of Wick and Allen Rd) to lead the rosary and a communion service on Wednesdays at 2pm for the residents. If you feel called to share your faith in these ways, please call Therese at the parish office at (313) 436-0201 or email ttardiff@cabriniparish.com.

Since the year 1300, and every 25 years thereafter, the people of God have celebrated a Jubilee Year as a special gift of grace. The theme for Jubilee 2025 is "Pilgrims of Hope," and it will be a year of hope for a world suffering the impacts of war, the ongoing effects of illness, and the climate crisis. The following calendar from the Vatican, will inform the focus of our parish commemorations throughout this Jubilee Year.

Come join our family the 3rd Friday of each month for an evening of prayer, reflection and fellowship in celebration of the Jubilee Year!
Each month will feature a different prayer experience lead by one of our Family of Parish Priests.

New Monthly Service Opportunity

Pope Francis Center | Bridge House

Finding the right opportunities to fulfill the call to service and support those in need can be challenging. We're excited to share a wonderful opportunity to engage our parishioners and serve in faith.

We have a chance to become involved at the Bridge Housing Campus, part of the Pope Francis Center, as a Meal Team providing regular support preparing and serving meals alongside their talented chef. The location is near the former St. Leo's soup kitchen near I-96 and Warren.

Meal Teams of four will cover the lunch shift from 11:00 am-2:00 pm on the 3rd Thursday each month with our next opportunity on Thursday, January 16. We'll meet outside the Parish Office at 10:20 am on the designated date. All food is provided. Transportation as well will be provided.

If you're interested in joining us or would like more information call Barb Engler at (313)407-9511 or email at bpengler621@gmail.com.

Many thanks in advance for your consideration in being a part of the critical team preparing and serving meals. We look forward to working with you!
