Weekend at Birney's

Gifts for St. Mary Magdalen

This week I received correspondence from Comerica Bank regarding a gift left for St. Mary Magdalen from a parishioner who included the parish in the Trust established to distribute his estate. Through the steadfast faithfulness and extreme generosity of Mr. James Durgerian, St. Mary Magdalen will be receiving $400,000.00 to support the mission of the Church.

Rare gifts such as these provide me the opportunity to highlight the forethought of those like Mr. Durgerian who attend to the many needs of ministry offered through the Church by leaving financial gifts in their estate planning. I am told that in life he was a man of great faith, and in his passing, that testimony of faith continues. Please remember the repose of the soul of Mr. Durgerian.

Jubilee Year Reflection:

Pope Francis highlights St. Mary Magdalen

Pope Francis highlighted Mary Magdalene's transformative encounter with the risen Christ as a model for personal conversion during a jubilee year audience at the Vatican's Paul VI Hall last Saturday.

"The jubilee is for people and for the Earth a new beginning; everything must be rethought within the dream of God," the pope told pilgrims gathered for the morning audience Feb. 1.

Drawing from the Gospel of John's account of Mary Magdalene at the empty tomb, Francis emphasized how she "turned around" multiple times before recognizing the risen Jesus — a detail the pontiff said was carefully chosen by the evangelist.

"The Risen One is not on the side of death but on the side of life," the Holy Father explained. "He can be mistaken for one of the people we encounter every day."

The pope connected Mary Magdalene's spiritual journey to the broader meaning of conversion, noting that entering "the new world" often requires changing perspective more than once.

Francis emphasized how Mary Magdalene recognized Jesus only when he spoke her name, suggesting that personal encounter is essential for authentic conversion.

"From Mary Magdalene, whom tradition calls 'the apostle of the apostles,' we learn hope," the pope said, adding that the journey of faith requires a "constant invitation to change perspective."

Francis warned that an overconfident and proud ego prevents recognition of the risen Jesus.

The pope concluded his catechesis with a challenging question for the faithful: "Do I know how to turn around to see things differently? Do I have the desire for conversion?"

5th Sunday of Ordinary Time

"In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches from Simon's boat. Jesus turns to Simon and instructs him about where to lower the fishing nets. Simon and others have been fishing throughout the night and have not caught anything. Simon ultimately obeys Jesus and lowers his nets into the deeper water as directed. Notice here that Peter calls Jesus by the title "master." He already recognizes Jesus as a person of authority. They catch so many fish that the nets begin to tear; Jesus' presence has created abundance out of scarcity, just as it did at the wedding feast at Cana, which we heard at Mass just a few weeks ago.

Simon Peter becomes a follower of Jesus immediately. He calls Jesus "Lord"—the title given to Jesus after his Resurrection—and protests his worthiness to be in Jesus' presence. Today's Gospel, therefore, marks a turning point in the relationship between Jesus and Peter.

Jesus gives Simon a new job, telling him that he will become a different kind of fisherman. No longer will he catch fish; instead he will catch people. In these words, we hear the beginning of the leadership role that Peter will have within the community of disciples.

We continue to speak of Peter's leadership and influence in the Church today when we call the pope the "successor of Peter." We participate in the mission of the Church when we bring people to Christ through the example and positive influence of our lives.

Regalo para Santa María Magdalena

Esta semana recibí correspondencia de Comerica Bank con respecto a un regalo dejado para Santa María Magdalena de un feligrés que incluyó la parroquia en el Fideicomiso establecido para distribuir su patrimonio. A través de la firme fidelidad y extrema generosidad del Sr. James Durgerian, Santa María Magdalena recibirá $400,000.00 para apoyar la misión de la Iglesia.

Dones raros como estos me brindan la oportunidad de resaltar la previsión de aquellos que, como el Sr. Durgerian, atienden las muchas necesidades del ministerio que se ofrecen a través de la Iglesia dejando dones financieros en su planificación patrimonial. Me han dicho que en vida fue un hombre de gran fe, y en su muerte, ese testimonio de fe continúa. Por favor, recuerde el descanso del alma del señor Durgerian.

Reflexión sobre el Año Jubilar:

El Papa Francisco destaca a Santa María Magdalena

El Papa Francisco destacó el encuentro transformador de María Magdalena con Cristo resucitado como modelo para la conversión personal durante una audiencia del año jubilar en el Aula Pablo VI del Vaticano el sábado pasado.

"El jubileo es para los hombres y para la Tierra un nuevo comienzo; todo debe ser repensado dentro del sueño de Dios", dijo el papa a los peregrinos reunidos para la audiencia matutina del 1 de febrero.

Basándose en el relato del Evangelio de Juan de María Magdalena en la tumba vacía, Francisco enfatizó cómo ella "se dio la vuelta" varias veces antes de reconocer a Jesús resucitado, un detalle que el pontífice dijo que fue cuidadosamente elegido por el evangelista.

"El Resucitado no está del lado de la muerte, sino del lado de la vida", explicó el Santo Padre. "Puede ser confundido con una de las personas con las que nos encontramos todos los días".

El Papa conectó el viaje espiritual de María Magdalena con el significado más amplio de la conversión, señalando que entrar en "el nuevo mundo" a menudo requiere cambiar de perspectiva más de una vez.

Francisco enfatizó cómo María Magdalena reconoció a Jesús solo cuando pronunció su nombre, sugiriendo que el encuentro personal es esencial para una conversión auténtica.

"De María Magdalena, a quien la tradición llama 'la apóstol de los apóstoles', aprendemos la esperanza", dijo el papa, y agregó que el camino de la fe requiere una "invitación constante a cambiar de perspectiva".

Francisco advirtió que un ego demasiado confiado y orgulloso impide el reconocimiento de Jesús resucitado.

El Papa concluyó su catequesis con una pregunta desafiante para los fieles: "¿Sé dar la vuelta para ver las cosas de otra manera? ¿Tengo el deseo de la conversión?"

5º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

"En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús enseña desde la barca de Simón. Jesús se dirige a Simón y le indica dónde bajar las redes de pesca. Simón y otros han estado pescando toda la noche y no han pescado nada. Simón finalmente obedece a Jesús y baja sus redes a las aguas más profundas como se le indicó. Nótese aquí que Pedro llama a Jesús por el título de "maestro". Ya reconoce a Jesús como una persona de autoridad. Atrapan tantos peces que las redes comienzan a rasgarse; La presencia de Jesús ha creado abundancia a partir de la escasez, tal como lo hizo en las bodas de Caná, que escuchamos en la Misa hace solo unas semanas.

Simón Pedro se convierte en un seguidor de Jesús inmediatamente. Llama a Jesús "Señor" —el título que se le dio a Jesús después de su resurrección— y protesta su dignidad de estar en la presencia de Jesús. El Evangelio de hoy, por tanto, marca un punto de inflexión en la relación entre Jesús y Pedro.

Jesús le da a Simón un nuevo trabajo, diciéndole que se convertirá en un tipo diferente de pescador. Ya no pescará; en cambio, atraparé a la gente. En estas palabras, escuchamos el comienzo del papel de liderazgo que Pedro tendrá dentro de la comunidad de discípulos.

Seguimos hablando del liderazgo y la influencia de Pedro en la Iglesia hoy cuando llamamos al Papa el "sucesor de Pedro". Participamos en la misión de la Iglesia cuando llevamos a las personas a Cristo a través del ejemplo y la influencia positiva de nuestras vidas.

Lift Up Your Hearts

There may come some time in our lives when we feel like Simon Peter: “Master, we have worked hard and have caught nothing.” I have nothing to show for all my work....BUT...I WILL DO WHATEVER YOU SAY, I will lower my nets...” (Lk: 5;1-11). Go ahead, think about Peter, we are all like him once in a while. WE can get down on ourselves....why bother “fishing”, I get nothing anyway. Oh yes....we have our Life patterns.

This kind of thinking or talk can lead to other false “solutions” .....as it has happened to people in the AA program or the NA group. Yes, anybody can get “addicted” to negativity. People will even reject themselves or even help from Jesus. Even our St. Peter said....let me go Lord....for I am a no-good sinner.

But we can easily forget that Jesus is also with us in our own “boat of Life.” We must never fall into that pattern of thinking that tempts us into saying: I am no good.... depart from me Lord, I am beyond doing any good.

This is all a clever temptation of the Devil to pull us away from trusting in God.

Jesus will remind us very clearly as He did Peter:

“DO NOT BE AFRAID, I have a job for you.

You are not all done, you are important to Me.

DO NOT BE AFRAID, FROM NOW ON. ”

Yes, we must turn to the Lord Jesus and in our daily prayer ask for His love and guidance. We must learn to live one day at a time, and at the end of each day, count our blessings and remember that Jesus is the Lord of our Lives.

With love, Fr. Leo

St. Vincent de Paul

Burr, it is cold outside!

We are getting more call for utilities and rent.

Many people were given reprieves because of the holidays but now the landlords want their money. We are receiving many calls each day for help. They have ranged from needing $3000 in rent to needing diapers for their children. Currently beds are also a large request.

We try to do our best to help the Neighbors in Need when they call us. We are grateful for all the funds that we have received from you. Many times we have reached out to other churches even beyond our area. We are now able to reach out to Oakland County churches and have done so many times.

Our Lady of Good Council has also been very helpful. Our church, St. Mary Magdalen and St. Andre Bessette have given over $25,000 this past year so we are able to help those less fortunate than us.

We appreciate every dollar. Our biggest wish is that you could share in the smiles and huge hugs that we receive because of your donations.

THANK YOU for letting us serve God's poor.

JUBILEE CELEBRATION

Upcoming Celebration
St. Frances Cabrini
Friday, February 21st at 7PM

February: Service

Your Service Exemplifies God's Glory

When you live out your faith through service, you're allowing God's love to flow through you and touch the lives of others. You may never know the full impact of your actions, but God sees every act of kindness and uses it for His glory.

Serving others can lead to a deeper, richer faith because you are actively participating in God's work here on earth. Through service, we reflect Christ to the world. When people see us helping, caring, and loving selflessly, they see a glimpse of Jesus.

Our faith becomes a powerful testimony that can inspire others to know Him.

Come join our family the 3rd Friday of each month for an evening of prayer, reflection and fellowship in celebration of the Jubilee Year! Each month will feature a different prayer experience lead by one of our Parish Priest starting at 7:00 pm.

February: Servicio

Su servicio ejemplifica la gloria de Dios

Cuando vives tu fe a través del servicio, estás permitiendo que el amor de Dios fluya a través de ti y toque la vida de los demás. Es posible que nunca sepas el impacto total de tus acciones, pero Dios ve cada acto de bondad y lo usa para Su gloria.

Servir a los demás puede conducir a una fe más profunda y rica porque estás participando activamente en la obra de Dios aquí en la tierra. A través del servicio, reflejamos a Cristo al mundo. Cuando las personas nos ven ayudando, cuidando y amando desinteresadamente, ven un destello de Jesús.

Nuestra fe se convierte en un poderoso testimonio que puede inspirar a otras personas a conocerlo.

¡Únase a nuestra familia el 3er viernes de cada mes para una noche de oración, reflexión y compañerismo en celebración del Año Jubilar! Cada mes contará con una experiencia de oración diferente dirigida por uno de nuestros sacerdotes de la Familia de Parroquias a partir de las 7:00 pm.

Help us Host ChristNet

For the Homeless

Our parish will once again host the ChristNet Warming Center for one week right here at Cabrini in the Holy Family Hall. Our week will start on the evening of Sunday, February 16 and go through the morning of Sunday, February 23.

So, the ChristNet Board out of concern for the situation have come up with a plan to provide temporary emergency shelter for the months of February, March and part of April. This plan would include host churches to provide a hot meal for the guests and a warm place to sleep through the night.

They would get dropped off in the evening and picked up early in the morning. All their other needs that we would normally assist with will be met at the drop-in center such as: breakfast, lunch, showers and laundry.

So, with that being said we are hoping you will assist us in providing for the homeless this week. A volunteer sign-up sheet for daily meals, supplies and nighttime chaperones are on the table in the Narthex. Take a look and see how you can get involved.

The efforts of many make this Christian outreach a success, and we are certain this year the same holds true. Monetary donations help to offset the cost of items that may need purchased for guests when they come to us asking for shoes, boots, coats, jeans etc.

If you have any questions, please call Therese Tardiff in the Parish Office, 313-436-0201 or ttardiff@cabriniparish.com.

Sewing Ministry

Come and learn a new skill, freshen up on an existing skill, meet some new people, and enjoy fellowship through service to others.

We work on reusable sani-pads for girls and women around the world that have limited or no access to sanitary pads. Cutting, pinning, sewing - no experience necessary.

We crochet bags and sleeping mats for the homeless from plastic grocery bags, making 'plarn' from strips of the plastic grocery bags that do NOT need to be in our landfills. We can teach you how to crochet if you don't know how, or you can help make the 'plarn'.

We meet the 2nd and 4th Monday of the month from Noon until 2:30 in the John Paul II room of Holy Family Hall at Cabrini (15300 Wick Rd. Allen Park). Enter through door # 2 across from the garden.

Call or text Nancy Trela at 313-575-2971 or call Pat DeClerk at 734-946-4709 with any questions. Open to all Parishes!

We would love for you to become involved!
