Ordination to the Diaconate for Seminarians: Lizandro Barba Daniel Whalen

On Saturday, April 11, St. Alfred's parish

son, Lizandro Barba, and seminarian intern for the Quo Vadis Domine Family since 2024, Daniel Whalen, will be ordained as Transitional Deacons for the Archdiocese of Detroit. Every Roman Catholic priest is first ordained to the Order of Deacons prior to his priestly ordination. There are two 'kinds' of Deacons in the Catholic Church:

- Permanent Deacons, who are typically married men who can proclaim the Gospel at Mass, celebrate the sacraments of Baptism and Holy Matrimony and enjoy the status of an ordained cleric in the Church. Their discernment realizes its conclusion with their ordination to the Diaconate. In our Family, we have three Permanent Deacons: Deacons Luis Flores & Fred Guardiola at St. Frances Cabrini and Deacon Scott LaForest at St. Alfred.

- Transitional Deacons are those who are on the path of discernment for the priesthood. They are seminarians who have typically been in formation for six to eight years, depending on what level they entered the seminary, and will eventually be ordained to the priesthood. They have the same abilities as Permanent Deacons.

This is a 'double blessing' for our QVD Family. We have the honor of accompanying these two young men towards the reason God placed them on this earth—to serve the people of God as a priest of Jesus Christ. Please continue to pray for all our seminarians, for Lizandro and Daniel as they anticipate their ordinations, and for many more from our parishes to follow in their footsteps.

Welcome Mr. Dale Kaminski

The Quo Vadis Family of Parishes is blessed to welcome Mr. Dale Kaminski as our new Mission Support Director. Dale comes to our family after many years of working within the hospitality sector, most specifically as an administrator, director and owner of restaurant operations at several locations throughout the country. He is active at his home parish of St. John Vianney, Shelby Township and as a member of the Knights of Columbus. Dale brings his vast knowledge of administration, human resources, finances, and marketing to our parishes within QVD. The Mission Support Director (MSD), serves all six of the parishes within the QVD Family as the primary administrator for the 'business' of parish life. Please join me in welcoming Dale to our Family.

4th Sunday of Lent: Laetare

The Fourth Sunday of Lent is traditionally called Laetare Sunday with the liturgical color changing from purple to rose. Laetare is a Latin word that means "rejoice." Today's Gospel describes the reason for our joy: God's great love for us has been revealed in Jesus. Through his Passion, Death, and Resurrection, Christ has reconciled us with God and one another. In this Jubilee Year, we pray as Pilgrims of Hope, made new in Christ.

On this Laetare ('Rejoice!') Sunday at the mid-point of Lent, our liturgy centers on the boundless forgiveness of our loving God. We may choose to turn away from his love, but God forever turns towards us, longing to embrace us with compassion and rejoicing when we come back to him.

In the First Reading God tells Joshua that he has taken away the shame of the people of Israel: their years in exile eating manna in the desert are over. From now on, they eat from the bounty of the land.

The generosity of God's goodness and forgiveness is proclaimed throughout the Psalm. God comes to us in our need and distress, desiring us to put aside our shame and be radiant with his transforming love.

In our Second Reading from Paul's letter to the Corinthians continues this feast of forgiveness. We are reconciled to God through Christ and in him we are a new creation, liberated from our sins.

Finally, the beautiful parable that Jesus shares in today's Gospel sums up the whole message of the Good News and the promise of reconciliation. This reconciliation is made complete through the events of Holy Week and Easter that we will soon celebrate.

Quote for the Week

"We must fear God out of love, not love Him out of fear. "-Saint Francis de Sales

That's all for now, see you in Church, Fr. Tim Birney

Fin de Semana en Birney's

Ordenación al diaconado de los seminaristas:

Lizandro Barba y Daniel Whalen

El sábado 11 de abril, el hijo de la parroquia de San Alfredo, Lizandro Barba, y el seminarista en prácticas de la Familia Quo Vadis Domine desde 2024, Daniel Whalen, serán ordenados diáconos de transición para la Arquidiócesis de Detroit. Todo sacerdote católico romano es ordenado primero a la Orden de Diáconos antes de su ordenación sacerdotal. Hay dos "tipos" de diáconos en la Iglesia Católica:

- Los diáconos permanentes, que suelen ser hombres casados que pueden proclamar el Evangelio en la Misa, celebrar los sacramentos del Bautismo y el Santo Matrimonio y disfrutar del estatus de clérigo ordenado en la Iglesia. Su discernimiento llega a su fin con su ordenación al diaconado. En nuestra Familia, tenemos tres Diáconos Permanentes: los Diáconos Luis Flores y Fred Guardiola en St. Frances Cabrini y el Diácono Scott LaForest en St. Alfred.

- Los diáconos de transición son aquellos que están en el camino del discernimiento para el sacerdocio. Son seminaristas que normalmente han estado en formación durante seis u ocho años, dependiendo del nivel en el que entraron en el seminario, y eventualmente serán ordenados al sacerdocio. Tienen las mismas habilidades que los diáconos permanentes.

Esta es una 'doble bendición' para nuestra familia QVD. Tenemos el honor de acompañar a estos dos jóvenes hacia la razón por la que Dios los puso en esta tierra: para servir al pueblo de Dios como sacerdotes de Jesucristo. Por favor, continúen orando por todos nuestros seminaristas, por Lizandro y Daniel mientras anticipan sus ordenaciones, y por muchos más de nuestras parroquias para seguir sus pasos.

La foto de arriba es de aquellos que serán ordenados Diáconos de Transición para la Arquidiócesis de Detroit el 11 de abril en el Seminario del Sagrado Corazón. De izquierda a derecha: Lizandro Barba, Karl Finkbeiner, el arzobispo emérito Vigneron, James Musgrave y Daniel Whalen.

Bienvenido Sr. Dale Kaminski

La Familia de Parroquias Quo Vadis tiene la bendición de dar la bienvenida al Sr. Dale Kaminski como nuestro nuevo Director de Apoyo a la Misión. Dale llega a nuestra familia después de muchos años de trabajar en el sector de la hospitalidad, más específicamente como administrador, director y propietario de operaciones de restaurantes en varios lugares del país. Es activo en su parroquia natal de St. John Vianney, Shelby Township y como miembro de los Caballeros de Colón. Dale aporta su vasto conocimiento de administración, recursos humanos, finanzas y marketing a nuestras parroquias dentro de QVD. El Director de Apoyo a la Misión (MSD, por sus siglas en inglés) sirve a las seis parroquias dentro de la Familia QVD como el administrador principal de los "asuntos" de la vida parroquial. Por favor, únanse a mí para dar la bienvenida a Dale a nuestra familia.

4º Domingo de Cuaresma: Laetare

El Cuarto Domingo de Cuaresma se llama tradicionalmente Domingo Laetare y el color litúrgico cambia de púrpura a rosa. Laetare es una palabra latina que significa "regocijarse". El Evangelio de hoy describe la razón de nuestra alegría: el gran amor de Dios por nosotros se ha revelado en Jesús. A través de su Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección, Cristo nos ha reconciliado con Dios y entre nosotros. En este Año Jubilar, oramos como peregrinos de esperanza, renovados en Cristo.

En este Laetare ('¡Alégrate!') El domingo, en el punto medio de la Cuaresma, nuestra liturgia se centra en el perdón ilimitado de nuestro Dios amoroso. Podemos elegir alejarnos de su amor, pero Dios siempre se vuelve hacia nosotros, anhelando abrazarnos con compasión y regocijándose cuando regresamos a él.

En la primera lectura, Dios le dice a Josué que ha quitado la vergüenza del pueblo de Israel: sus años de exilio comiendo maná en el desierto han terminado. A partir de ahora, comen de la generosidad de la tierra.

La generosidad de la bondad y el perdón de Dios se proclaman a lo largo del Salmo. Dios viene a nosotros en nuestra necesidad y angustia, deseando que dejemos a un lado nuestra vergüenza y seamos radiantes con su amor transformador.

En nuestra segunda lectura de la carta de Pablo a los Corintios continúa esta fiesta del perdón. Somos reconciliados con Dios a través de Cristo y en él somos una nueva creación, liberados de nuestros pecados.

Por último, la hermosa parábola que Jesús comparte en el Evangelio de hoy resume todo el mensaje de la Buena Nueva y la promesa de la reconciliación. Esta reconciliación se completa a través de los acontecimientos de la Semana Santa y de la Pascua que pronto celebraremos.

Frase de la semana

"Debemos temer a Dios por amor, no amarlo por miedo". -San Francisco de Sales

Eso es todo por ahora, nos vemos en la Iglesia, Padre Tim Birney

Monthly Service Opportunity | April 17

Finding the right opportunities to fulfill the call to service and support those in need can be challenging. We're excited to share a wonderful opportunity to engage our parishioners and serve in faith.

We have a chance to become involved at the Bridge Housing Campus, part of the Pope Francis Center, as a Meal Team providing regular support preparing and serving meals alongside their talented chef. The location is near the former St. Leo's soup kitchen near I-96 and Warren.

Meal Teams of four will cover the lunch shift from 11:00am-2:00pm on the 3rd Thursday each month with our next opportunity on Thursday, April 17.

We'll meet outside the Cabrini Parish Office at 10:20am on the designated date. All food is provided. Transportation as well will be provided.

If you're interested in joining us or would like more information call Barb Engler at (313)407-9511 or email at bpengler621@gmail.com.

Upcoming Celebration

St. Alfred | April 16 | 7:00pm

Prayers of Adoration:

- I adore you, O Christ, present here and in all the churches of the world, for by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.
- My Lord Jesus Christ, it is Your great love for us that keeps You day and night present in the Blessed Sacrament, full of compassion and love, waiting for us to visit You.
- I adore You, Bread from Heaven. I adore You, My Jesus, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament.
- My God, we adore You here in the Blessed Sacrament. As we kneel before You, we recognize You as the Creator of all Life.

Oraciones de Adoración:

- Te adoro, oh Cristo, presente aquí y en todas las iglesias del mundo, porque por tu santa cruz has redimido al mundo.
- Mi Señor Jesucristo, es tu gran amor por nosotros lo que te mantiene día y noche presente en el Santísimo Sacramento, lleno de compasión y amor, esperando que te visitemos.
- Te adoro, Pan del Cielo. Te adoro, mi Jesús, verdaderamente presente en el Santísimo Sacramento.
- Mi Dios, te adoramos aquí en el Santísimo Sacramento. Al arrodillarnos ante ti, te reconocemos como el Creador de toda la vida.

Parish Service Day

Garden Clean up | April 26 | 9:00am-12:00pm

Parishioners of all ages, including families with younger children, are welcome to participate in this awesome day of community service, we have enjoyed working together, and encourage you to join us for a great opportunity to be Christ to others.

We will be preparing the church gardens for spring planting. We need lots of volunteers of all ages to help rake up pine needles and pinecones under the pine trees, dig up overgrown patches, and most important to trim and cut back bushes. So, our greatest need at this time is for volunteers with hedge trimmers, weed whackers and hand-held pruners.

We also need volunteers with rakes and shovels, trowels, brooms, brown paper lawn bags or trash cans on wheels. Don't forget to wear your garden gloves.

Little kids can pick up pinecones and big kids can empty the lawn waste into the dumpster. You do not have to be a gardener or have a green thumb, just the desire to spend the morning outdoors working in the earth and the fresh air.

If you cannot help on this day, we will be posting information on how you can become involved in the gardens in the near future. This is a huge undertaking, and we depend on many volunteers throughout the summer.

If you cannot physically help, we always welcome donations of money, or Home Depot gift cards to purchase mulch, annuals and more perennials.

We will meet outside the Holy Family Hall. Many hands make light work! If you are interested in participating in this morning of service to the parish, please call the parish office at (313) 436-0201 or email ttardiff@cabriniparish.com to sign up.

Please Return Rice Bowls to the Parish Office by Palm Sunday!

Fr. Saylor Knights of Columbus

Congratulations to the family of Paul and Leanne Glei from St. Frances Cabrini Church for being named Fr. Saylor Family of the Month, and to John Varga from Our Lady of the Angels church for being named Fr. Saylor Knight of the Month.

Thank you for your dedication to our parishes and to the Knights of Columbus. Our Lent Friday Fish Fry are doing well. If you haven't had an opportunity to try our fish, stop by our member lounge on Friday evening and enjoy a nice fish dinner.

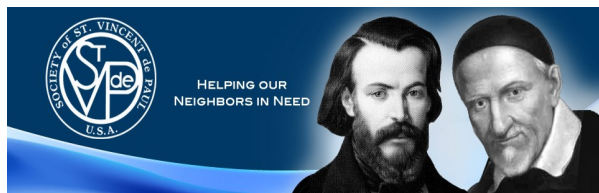

Our Steak Nights are back, stop into the lounge the last Wednesday of each month to enjoy a New York strip steak with us.

On Saturday April 5th we will be hosting a Mostaccioli Dinner in our hall next to our member lounge to raise money for the mentally impaired. Please stop in and support this worthy cause.

Thank you for the support from our parish families. Again, I encourage all our fellow Parishioners to join us at Fr. Saylor Knights of Columbus.

You can make a difference!

Volunteering is the heart of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul and our work assisting our neighbors in need. We are "a network of friends, inspired by Gospel values, growing in holiness and building a more just world through personal relationships with and service to people in need."

By volunteering for St. Vincent de Paul or becoming a Vincentian, you can be sure you're making a difference locally for those in need. Below are some ways you can get involved to help alleviate the suffering of the poor.

- Be a dispatcher for our helpline
- Make follow-up calls to our neighbors
- Help with mailings of fundraisers
- Repair a car or provide transportation
- Share our needs with your family and friends via social media
- Become a Vincentian and grow spiritually with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul
- Join another volunteer in a neighborhood home visit (currently conducted via teleconference)
- Pray for the safety of our volunteers and neighbors in need

If you've been looking for an opportunity to give back to the community that will make a tremendous impact and deepen your own spiritual life, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul could be the network of friends you've been looking for.

To explore volunteer opportunities or to find out more about becoming a member of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul/St. Frances Cabrini Parish please contact the parish office at 313-381-5601 for more information.

"Tender God, refuge of the poor, You filled Vincent de Paul with the strength of the apostles to work for the salvation of the poor and the instruction of the clergy. May we who follow the example of his life be driven by unceasing charity to continue the mission of Your Son in the world."

Sewing Ministry

Come and learn a new skill, freshen up on an existing skill, meet some new people, and enjoy fellowship through service to others. All Parishes are welcome!

We work on reusable sani-pads for girls and women around the world that have limited or no access to sanitary pads. Cutting, pinning, sewing - no experience necessary. We would love for you to become involved!

We crochet bags and sleeping mats for the homeless from plastic grocery bags, making 'plarn' from strips of the plastic grocery bags that do NOT need to be in our landfills. We can teach you how to crochet if you don't know how, or you can help make the 'plarn'.

We meet the 2nd and 4th Monday of the month from Noon until 2:30pm in the St. John Paul II room of Holy Family Hall at Cabrini (15300 Wick Rd. Allen Park). Enter through door #2 across from the garden.

Call or text Nancy Trela at 313-575-2971 or call Pat DeClerk at 734-946-4709 with any questions.

Stewardship of Time and Talent

Corresponsabilidad de Tiempo y el Talento

Spring is here. Time to think about cleaning your yard. A good cleanup paves the way for your future garden to flourish and provides you with a neat, relaxing outdoor space. Be a good steward of your neighborhood also. Help a neighbor who is physically unable to clean their yard.

Llegó la primavera. Es momento de pensar en limpiar su jardín. Una buena limpieza facilita el futuro florecimiento de su jardín y le proporciona un espacio exterior limpio y relajante. Sea un buen corresponsable de su vecindario. Ayude a un vecino/a que no pueda, físicamente, limpiar su jardín.

The Power of Prayer

Amigas de Jesus had a presentation with guest speaker Jose Luis Miranda.

A morning filled with prayer and contact healing. Amigas de Jesus meets on Thursdays from 10:00am—12:00pm, where they have different topics of worship and an occasional guest speaker.

Stewardship of Prayer

Easter is only three weeks away. Make a commitment and a plan now to participate in all three liturgies of the Easter Triduum. Begin your preparation by prayerfully reading chapters 13 to 21 of the Gospel of John each day until Easter Sunday.

Faltan solo tres semanas para la Pascua. Comprométase y haga un plan ahora para participar en las tres liturgias del Triduo Pascual. Inicie su preparación leyendo devotamente los capítulos 13 al 21 del Evangelio de San Juan todos los días hasta el Domingo de Pascua.

Fourth Sunday of Lent

Arm the Photon Torpedoes

Usually the first reading is picked to go with the Gospel. This week the connection appears to be a feast. The book of Joshua tells of the Israelites coming into the Promised Land, where they no longer needed to be fed with manna as in the desert.

They had been wandering much longer than expected because of their unfaithfulness. But now they are forgiven, and so celebrate the Passover with food from the land.

Then we hear the Gospel parable about another feast. This one is also a celebration of forgiveness, for the prodigal son has returned to his father, and the father's forgiveness shows us how willing God is to forgive us. That's where we end the parable, right?

Wrong. The parable continues with the older son's complaint about a feast for his brother. Did you notice the words of the father that "everything I have is yours" (Luke 15:31)? He's not just being sentimental because they are family.

The younger brother had already taken his inheritance, so whatever was left will one day go to the older one. That son cannot forgive his brother and is angry at the father for welcoming the prodigal back. This is where we come in.

Most of us have no trouble asking God's forgiveness. But we may have trouble forgiving others. We are so used to thinking in terms of justice that we are not satisfied with forgiveness. When I have been hurt, I feel like hitting back.

When you see an action movie, you don't want the bad guy to give up and say he's sorry—you expect him to be destroyed by the good guy, hopefully in a big fight or a spectacular explosion. (Superheroes, however, almost never kill the bad guy.)

So we have to ask ourselves whose idea of justice we live by. Is it the human expectation of an eye for an eye? Or is it God's justice, which is mercy and forgiveness? When someone cuts you off in traffic, do you feel like firing the photon torpedoes, or offering forgiveness?

The Golden Rule could be "Forgive others as you would be forgiven." Jesus gave his life for the sins of the world. Do we have the right to ask for more.

-Tom Schmidt

Lift Up Your Hearts

Recently, Pope Francis has given us a message for this Lent:

“LET US JOURNEY TOGETHER IN HOPE.”

We are challenged to travel together as a parish community and in our Family of Parishes.... our family question is simply: QUO VADIS???...Yes, where are you going??? He reminds us that we are truly PILGRIMS, people who are on a journey.... not standing still. We are not immobilized by fear or hopelessness, nor reluctant to move out of our own “comfort zone.”

The Pope reminds us that we have been given a promise that we read in Romans (5:5):

HOPE THAT DOES NOT DISAPPOINT:

the Lord has a task for all of us in life. We each must do our part to bring the spirit of HOPE to others who may have become saddened by losses.

We must do our part to help to aid and assist whenever we can.... whether a stranger, friend, or a family member. There are things that only YOU can do to help. You are a special person with gifts that others may not have, perhaps the way you understand or because you have “been there...done that”!!

I end with a quote from St. Paul’s letter to the Romans (15:13):

MAY THE GOD OF HOPE, FILL YOU WITH ALL JOY AND PEACE IN BELIEVING, SO THAT YOU MAY ABOUND IN HOPE BY THE POWER OF THE HOLY SPIRIT.”

With love, Fr. Leo
